A regular Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was opened by the Eminent Commander at 4.35 P. M. on Wednesday, March 20, 1957, in Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple Boston, with all officers present except the Warder, whose station on opening was filled by Sir Knight Roger Bates, and later by Eminent Sir Lorin Lewis.

After the customary devotions, the minutes of the Conclave held on February 20, 1957 were read and approved.

In addition to the names of Companion Donald S. Amsbury and Companion Russell D. Wass Jr., carried on the notice of this Conclave, the Recorder also read the application of Companion Horace G. Stewart, but it was voted that action on any and all pending applications be delayed until the April Conclave.

On motion of the Recorder the dues of Sir Knight Harold R. Bates, now of Buffalo, New York, were remitted for the year 1957, and dues having been received for 1956, it was voted to grant Sir Knight Bates the dimit earlier requested by him.

The Recorder reported that Sir Knights Elmer E. Chase, Claude M. Sweet, William H. Brock, Edward E. Brock Jr., and Richard D. Chausse, had reported in the asylum of St. Omer Commandery of Dorchester on Saturday, March 16, where these Boston Commandery applicants for the orders duly received the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross exemplified in full form by Gethsemane Commandery and the Order of Malta exemplified by Hugh de Payens Commandery; and that thereafter on Monday, March 18 in Dorchester the above five Sir Knights received the Order of the Temple worked by St. Omer Commandery. Our own Eminent Sir James C. Bayley was present and assisted.

There being no other official business to be transacted the Commandery recessed until 5 P. M.

At 5 P. M. the Commandery re-assembled in Ionic Hall for the official reception of our inspecting officer Sir Clarence E. Booth, Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, who was announced by Eminent Sir John P. Widlund, Deputy Grand Warder. Our inspecting officer being graciously received and introduced by our Eminent Commander, in turn expressed his pleasure in being privileged to inspect Boston Commandery.

The official count was announced as follows: total members present 220; official suite 30; visitors (exclusive of the suite) 13; a total of 263 Sir Knights present despite inclement weather and a four inch fall of snow and slush.

On completion of the work, which did not include the first four libations, our marking officer Eminent Sir Harold L. Burr announced the official mark as 9 plus. It might be fairly recorded that the work of the evening, while creditable, was by no means outstanding. Eminent Sir Lorin Lewis adequately filled the position of Warder as a substitute for Sir Knight Castellon who was absent. Our Junior past Commander Eminent Sir Reid deserved more than a passing word of credit for his patient and tireless rehearsal work with our new line of officers.

Included on the suite of our inspecting officer were two Past Grand Commanders George A. Weeks, and Harrie W. Taft; also the Deputy Grand Commander Dwight C. Page, Grand Generalissimo Alfred C. Blake; Grand Captain General Elliott N. Holley, with his Deputy Grand Warder Eminent Sir John J. Mick; Grand Junior Warden Raymond L. Hall; Grand Sentinel Clarence R. Davis; Commander of the 6'th Division Gilbert G. Machon; Commander of the 7'th Division Russell R. Long; and 19 other distinguished Templars including the Deputy Grand Commander and a Past Grand Commander of Maine.

Eminent Sir Booth brought the greetings of the Grand Commander; complimented Boston Commandery on our continued fine standing in New England Templary, and reminded the Sir Knights of Templar events scheduled for the balance of the year. Brief remarks were also made by Very Eminent Sir Dwight Page, following which the inspecting officer officially retired with his suite, and after appropriate devotions the Eminent Commander closed Boston Commandery at 9.30 P. M.

A Special Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was convened in the Armory, Masonic Temple, Boston, on Sunday, May 19, 1957 for the purpose of attending the Seventh Annual Protestant Laymen's Communion at Old South Church in Copley Square, and acting as escort in parade from Copley Square to Breakfast at Mechanics Building.

The Eminent Commander called the meeting to order at 6.30 A. M. after which special bus transported Sir Knights from the Temple to Old South Church in Copley Square where services were conducted by our own Associate Prelate Rev. Sir Frederick M. Meek pastor of the Old South Congregational Church. Marching behind Aleppo Temple Shrine Band the Sir Knights led by our Eminent Commander paraded from church to breakfast and a most impressive meeting at which the speaker was the Honorable Walter H. Judd, member of the Congress of the United States from Minnesota.

In attendance were Sir Knights Harrington, MacOdrum, Locus, R. G. Wilson Jr., Andrews, Bayley, Keough, Reid, Lewis, Crook, Zepp, Fischer, Skinner, Wilton, Bates, Der Garabedian, Nowers Casey, Roulston, Spargo, Brown, H. Robertson, Tyler, Hodgston Fogel, E. Robertson, Treco, Proodian, Shallna, Austin, Heminway, Thomas and Cederstrom.

A regrettable omission was failure by Laymen's Committee to include any reference to Boston Commandery of Knights Templar in advance publicity, or on the detailed printed program; also failure to list the Commander of Boston Commandery among the long list of 49 special guests as printed on the program; and finally the failure by the Committee to include the Commander of the Boston Commandery uniformed parade escort as a head table guest among those so designated on the program, and over half of whom were not even present.

After the customary devotions the records of our regular May 15, 1957 Conclave and also Special Conclave of May 19, 1957 were read and approved.

Proper Dispensation being on file, the following Companions were elected to receive the Orders:

Nelson Edward Bragg of 31 Chester St., Arlington

The following application for affiliation by dimit from Bethel Commandery #19 of Morris, Minnesota, was read and the following Sir Knight was elected to membership in Boston Commandery:

Leonard Arthur Thrall of 68 Marlborough St., Boston

The Recorder then reported requests had failed to result in payment of dues by the following nine Sir Knights, and due notice having been given in accordance with Templar law it was voted that the Sir Knights whose names were read, some of whom had also been earlier suspended by their respective Lodges or Chapters, be suspended:

Orville G. Brandon,	suspended by Tabernacle Chapter August 31, 1956
Touffee E. Sabby,	suspended by West Roxbury Lodge June 5, 1956

The 156'th Annual Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was duly held in Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple, Boston on Wednesday, September 18, 1957.

Opened at 5.45 by the Eminent Commander, with all officers present except the Warder, the customary devotions were led by our Prelate. Sir Knight Roger Bates acted as Warder.

The minutes of our June 19, 1957 Conclave were read and approved.

A unanimous favorable ballot was taken on the application of Companion Donald B. Drew of Arlington to receive the orders.

Applications were read from Raymond L. Morrison and Horace A. Lyman of Beverly, Norton Wilson Cann of Dorchester, and Eric F. Smith of Lunenburg.

The Recorder commented on the severe loss suffered by the Commandery on the untimely and sudden death of Sir Knight Gibbs Sherrill of Beverly Farms only 60 days after his knighting on June 27'th.

Eminent Sir Herman McStay moved that the customary $250 be added to the Alfred C. Blake Fund towards the celebration of his expected election as Grand Commander in 1958, and the motion was passed unanimously.

The Recorder then read his Annual Report which was accepted and ordered spread on the records. It was noted that the membership of our Commandery, which reached 1526 in September of 1928, now numbers 1209,--a net loss of 21 for the year, and the first net loss in Boston Commandery membership in 13 years despite the fact that 50 Sir Knights were knighted during the year compared with 33 one year ago. Deaths reported during the past year totalled 35 as compared to 18 one year ago; dimits 22 as against 9; suspensions 21 as against 8. Three affiliations were reported and 4 reinstatements.

Official membership of Boston Commandery as of June 30, 1937 was 1063; as of June 30, 1944 was 776; as of June 30, 1956 was 1230,--the highest membership figure in 20 years.

The Commandery then listened to the excellent and detailed Annual Report by the Treasurer, which was accepted and ordered spread on the records. The grand total of all funds of the Commandery was reported as $191,506.47 taken at cost, but with a market value of $242,696.67 as of August 31, 1957. Our income from all funds was reported to be about $9000 annually, or a yield of approximately 4.75 per cent.

The Sir Knights recessed for dinner and entertainment at 6.40 P.M. with 110 present.

Returning from the banquet hall after an excellent dinner and entertainment the Commandery then re-assembled at 8 P.M. to receive the report of the Nominating Committee composed of Eminent Sirs James S. W. Rogers, James C. Bayley and Robert G. Wilson Jr., and Sir Knights Clyde Tyler and Harold Hodgson.

Sir Kt. Howard L. Mac Odrum	Generalissimo
Sir Kt. George Locus	Captain General

Committees appointed alternately to distribute, sort, and count ballots were Eminent Sirs James S. W. Rogers, William Odell and John Reid; and Eminent Sir James C. Bayley, Sir Kts. G. D. Boynton, and H. Richter.

A Committee of all Past Commanders present, with the Guards as escort, presented our re-elected Eminent Commander into the asylum.

There being no objection, motion was unanimously carried that the remaining officers be elected by one ballot cast in behalf of the Commandery by Sir Knight Rowland D. Crook, and all officers were thereupon declared duly elected.
